Bretonnia with its noble knights and ladies continues to live on in the Age of Sigmar! With a small reordering of the forum, there is now a dedicated tactics board for the Age of Sigmar rules. At the same time, a new board for alternate systems such as Kings of War was created. Of course, if you continue playing WHFB 8th edition ("Oldhammer"), just keep discussing all your rules and tactical ponderings in the Generals' Council for 8th edition and its sub-boards.
